Lyrics Origin – Evanescence

“I wrote it (Bring Me to Life) about my husband when we first met. We were not dating or anything, and we didn't actually begin to date until years later.

I was in a really bad place, relationally, and going through a really hard time. I didn't know Josh very well - he was kind of a friend of a friend. He sat across from me when we went to reserve a table and he just looked me dead in the eye and said, ‘Are you happy?’ And it shocked my heart and I looked down and just started making up excuses. I choked on my words because I felt like I was completely outwardly acting normal, but inside in a lot of turmoil. And I felt like he could just see straight into my soul. That inspired the whole song. Years later I told him it was about him, and the rest is history.”
